

DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT

Biola University is committed to the biblical truth that all persons are created in the image of God and should, therefore, be treated with dignity and respect. Biola seeks to emphasize the importance of being an authentically diverse community in pursuit of growth, awareness, and appreciation of our own diversity as well as that which exists in the broader world. As such, Biola does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, gender, disability, or prior military service in administration of its educational policies, admissions, financial aid, employment, educational programs, or activities. For more information, visit Biola's Discrimination and Harassment website (<https://www.biola.edu/student-handbooks/community-standards/discrimination-harassment/>).

Unless inconsistent with its religious tenets as expressed in and supported by its Theological Positions (<https://www.biola.edu/about/theological-positions/>) and other statements and policies such as its Sexuality, Gender and Relationships Policy (<https://www.biola.edu/student-handbooks/community-standards/sexuality-gender-relationships/>), Biola University prohibits sex discrimination in any education program or activity that it operates. Individuals may report concerns or questions to the Title IX Coordinator. The notice of nondiscrimination is located at <https://www.biola.edu/non-discrimination-policy> (<https://www.biola.edu/non-discrimination-policy/>).
