

ENROLLMENT DEPOSIT

Applicants (p. 1)

All applicants who are accepted to the university are required to submit an enrollment deposit (<https://catalog.biola.edu/financial-information/general-fees/#EnrollmentDeposit>). The deposit is non-refundable after May 1 (Fall) and January 1 (Spring) for undergraduate applicants if the student does not enroll in and complete the term for which he/she applied. Accepted applicants, whether or not they have selected courses, must inform Biola of any change in their plans regarding enrollment. Biola undergraduate students accepted into a Biola graduate program must submit a graduate deposit to ensure a place as a Biola graduate student.

Enrolled Students (p. 1)

The enrollment deposit is applied to the student account following the student's first term of enrollment. When enrolled students who have completed the term for which they applied, officially withdraw, their enrollment deposit will be applied to any balance owed at the time of departure, or will be refunded if their account is paid in full.
