

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY AND LEADERSHIP, M.A.C.M.L. (BIBLICAL AND PASTORAL MINISTRY) - KOREAN

Overview

Degree Program

The Biblical and Pastoral Ministry specialization is designed for students who want to focus on local church ministries. Students are equipped to communicate God's Word by providing the necessary skills to interpret and apply Scripture to the lives of God's people in a manner that is faithful to the text, clearly communicated and relevant to their particular ministry context.

Learning Outcomes

Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the Master of Arts in Christian Ministry and Leadership, Biblical and Pastoral Ministry specialization, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate abilities relevant to personal spiritual formation, including an understanding of spiritual theology, knowledge of God and self, relational skills, and an understanding of their vocation (ULO 3).
2. Explain the major doctrines of Christianity, including their biblical basis, and contemporary relevance (ULO 1).
3. Synthesize knowledge, skills, and perspectives from specialization-specific content of the Christian Ministry and Leadership program to determine implications for professional practice (ULO 2).

Each Program Learning Outcome (PLO) listed above references at least one of the University Learning Outcomes (ULO 1, 2, 3), which may be found in the General Information section (<https://catalog.biola.edu/general-information/#UniversityLearningOutcomes>) of this catalog.

Admission Requirements

Admission Requirements

Applicants must possess a Bachelor of Arts degree or its academic equivalent from an accredited college with a minimum grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale). Applicants who do not possess a Bachelor of Arts degree or its academic equivalent from an accredited institution may still apply and may be provisionally admitted at the discretion of Talbot School of Theology. Additionally, applicants should have completed an accredited course in Old Testament survey and in New Testament survey prior to matriculation. To meet the prerequisite, students must have received a C or higher in approved undergraduate or graduate survey courses from a regionally accredited institution. If the prerequisite courses are not completed prior to matriculation, the student is required to take TKBE 519 and TKBE 520 during their program.

All applicants must submit a written statement outlining their vocational objectives and how the degree might relate to those objectives.
